

It's my pleasure to introduce you to my signature furniture collection from Klaussner Home Furnishings.

If you've watched my cooking show (Trisha's Southern Kitchen) on Food Network, you know my recipes aren't fancy — more what you'd call comfort food. Well, I think of my furniture collection the same way, as comfort furniture, furniture that's comfortable to sit on, stretch out on and put your feet up on. Furniture for the way you really live.

The furniture in my collection is straightforward, honest, simple without being plain, crafted for comfort and, like my mama's potato salad, it goes with everything. As you look at the furniture, I hope you'll be able to see the hard work we put into creating it. Every color, every surface and finish, every piece of hardware was chosen to reflect my taste and style, my love of ease and comfort.

In a way I feel like creating this collection has been my way of opening my home to the world... and I really hope you feel welcome.
